High Diving Development Eligibility Policy

Diving Plongeon Canada (DPC) is in the early stages of launching a national high diving program. We are currently looking to identify Canadian athletes with high diving experience who may then be selected to engage in various development and competitive high diving opportunities with DPC.

Any athlete wishing to be considered for selection to DPC high diving activities, as determined by future selection criteria, must meet the following eligibility requirements:

The Athlete:

1. Must be a Canadian Citizen or be eligible to represent Canada in international competition.
2. Must have been actively training in high diving over the past 12 months through a recognized training program or performing regularly in shows and/or competitions, as determined by DPC in its sole discretion
3. Must be a participant registered in good standing with Diving Plongeon Canada
4. Must agree to adhere to DPC policies and procedures
5. Must apply to DPC and provide the follow documentation:
 - a. Proof of Canadian citizenship
 - b. Summary of history within the sport of diving including training locations, results, coaches and previous experience
 - c. Summary of all shows and competitions in which the athlete has been involved over the past 12 months. Please provide:
 - i. Athlete's list of dives used in competitions
 - ii. Official competition results
 - iii. Summary of show activity – i.e. number of high dives per day, participation in comedy sketches and dillies, other dives performed.
 - d. Details regarding the athlete's current and upcoming training program which identifies where the athlete is training, with whom (coaches and other divers) and training schedule.
 - e. Two letters of reference - each attesting to the athlete's:
 - i. Diving ability
 - ii. Character
 - f. A comprehensive police record check
6. Must agree and understand that they are subject to the Canadian Anti-Doping Program

Approval of eligibility for selection in DPC high diving activities will be contingent on the review of the athlete's application and recommendation and approval of DPC's national high diving coach.

Applications should be sent to:

Chris Huber
DPC National High Diving Coach
